MEMBERSHIP PLANS/HISTORY/MISSION

Sisters helping sisters in foreign lands, across massive raging seas. One of the guiding missions of NCAWM is to assist our sisters in ministry who are pressed, distressed, perplexed, and vexed in spirit as their voices have been squandered and diminished. Our sisters in ministry are faced with insurmountable obstacles which renders undeveloped and crushed ministries. NCAWM wants to be a vehicle of support and encouragement where hope seems hopeless and dreams deferred. Yearly voyages to foreign soil will be coordinated, members and friends of NCAWM are encourage to pack a bag and Bible, comfortable shoes, and clothing, putting on the whole armor of God and be about our Father's business in unknown, yet familiar territory.

Women in the ministry – the call, the opposition, the successes, the failures, the limitations, the effects on their families – it will all be here for women who are now experiencing life in the ministry. Each life story stands alone in its impact and implications; each affirming the role of women as effective pastors and setting examples to those who follow. God's faithful seldom know where the road will lead. They will only know the promise of God who calls them forward, "I WILL BE WITH YOU."

As the Convention recruits other women who are Gospel Preachers, locally, and statewide, the organization will not fail to recognize the prophesy of Joel 2:28-29, which states: "And it shall come to pass afterward, that I will pour out my Spirit on all flesh; your sons and yours daughters shall prophesy, your old men shall dream dreams and your young men shall see visions. Even upon men servants and maid servants in those days, I will pour out my Spirit."
